Dear Howard:

Somewhere, somehow, your letter of August 18 became buried and as I was cleaning my desk today for a few days vacation in the South, I came across it.

Probably too late but still a day or two before the deadline, I send you my letter in honor of Charlie Seymour, my respected friend.

Faithfully yours,

Thank you very much for your letter of 9 November offering your services to this Agency as a consultant.

Unfortunately, the situation is not at all encouraging. We have no requirements in which your services could be appropriately utilized. Also, the Agency is authorized by Congress to employ only a very limited number of retired military officers, and these positions are presently filled or firmly committed.

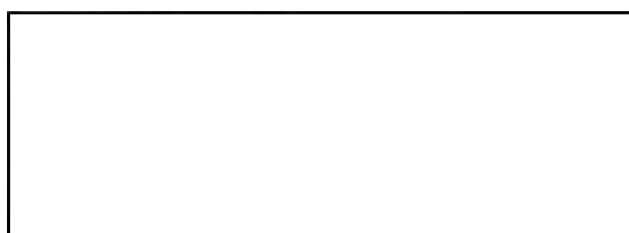

Your interest in this organization is appreciated and I regret that my answer cannot be more favorable.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Signed C. P. Cabell
